Mark For Mayor Campaign announces coffee shop chats

The Mark For Mayor Campaign will hold a series of coffee shop chats. Those meetings will occur at Gainesville coffee shops and restaurants.

The meetings will offer voters the opportunity to talk directly with Mark in relaxed settings about matters of concern to them.

Following is the schedule for the events:

Sunday, March 10
1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.
CYM Coffee Shop
5402 Northwest 8th Avenue
Gainesville

Tuesday, March 12
8:00 a.m. - 10:00 a.m.
Flying Buscuit
Sunflower Room
4150 Northwest 16th Boulevard
Gainesville

Saturday, March 16
9:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.
Coffee Culture
2020 Northwest 13th Street
Gainesville

Sunday, March 17
1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.
Starbucks Coffee Shop
3443 Southwest Archer Road
Suite 4
Gainesville

The campaign may schedule additional Chat With Mark events. The Campaign would announce those events on the Internet site of the Campaign.

Please announce these upcoming events in your medium/media.

Mark Venzke has been a politically active centrist through most of his adult life. He studied landscape architecture. He has worked as a designer and draftsman in architecture and engineering and has worked in most sectors of the landscape industry. He is currently an entrepreneur who is working to establish an electric-powered taxi business in Gainesville. He is fifty-five years old and has been living in Gainesville for seven and one-half of the past nine years.

The three, major governance objectives of his campaign are:

- the establishment of a fully responsible energy policy
- the establishment of open and responsive government
- the empowerment of socially and economically disengaged citizens and the revitalization of struggling neighborhoods
